Dear Mr. Butera:

The designated Diocesan censor has completed a review of the manuscript, Faith with Good Reason: Finding Truth Through an Analytical Lens, by Mr. Ben Butera. I understand that Rev. John Balluff, S.T.D. communicated directly with you regarding the material. He has found it to be in conformity with the teachings of the Church. Therefore, I am pleased to grant the Permission to Publish in accordance with the requirements of Canon 824 of the Code of Canon Law. The following text, in bold type, must be printed in the book:

Nihil Obstat
Reverend John Balluff, S.T.D.

The Nihil Obstat and Permission to Publish are official declarations that a book is free of doctrinal and moral error. No implication is contained therein that those who have granted the Nihil Obstat and Permission to Publish agree with the content, opinions, or statements expressed. Nor do they assume any legal responsibility associated with publication.

I would also like to point out that this approval is given for this version of the text only. Should you or your publisher make any further revision of the text (other than to implement the recommendations of the censor or to correct typographical errors) or if you wish to print a subsequent edition in which the original text is modified, you must seek the approval of the diocesan bishop of the place where the author currently resides or where the work is being published.

After publication, please send two copies of the work to Sister Judith Davies, OSF, Chancellor for the Diocese of Joliet, for filing in the Diocesan Archives.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Joseph M. Siegel
Auxiliary Bishop and Vicar General
Diocese of Joliet
