

Top 10 Reasons to Attend a Men's Cursillo Weekend

- 1) To grow spiritually and encounter a relationship with Christ that you have never experienced before.
- 2) To form a Christian community with like-minded individuals from a multitude of backgrounds and of all ages/experiences.
- 3) To become a better role model and leader within your family, workplace and social environments.
- 4) To enhance your moral and spiritual awareness which changes your priorities and ultimately brings more peace to you and to those around you.
- 5) To provide you the time to think, pray and learn additional devotional tools away from the hectic pace of everyday life. To provide time to sit and BE STILL and become aware of God's grace.
- 6) To provide an ongoing support system and method after the Weekend that most encounters/retreats do not offer to assist you on your spiritual journey.
- 7) To experience a sense of love and camaraderie in an environment of faith-filled men who freely demonstrate their love of Christ through fellowship.
- 8) To undergo an exhilarating and unforgettable religious and life-changing experience!
- 9) To have the opportunity to experience peace, serenity and joy that often eludes many people.
- 10) To experience the company of good men who practice and talk about their faith as an everyday part of their lives.
